CALL FOR PAPERS

INTRODUCTION

The sustainable development goals are created (SDGs) by United Nations with interrelated goals to guide global development between 2015 and 2030. We must work together to drive the solutions through high quality of research contribution in the society. Association of Agricultural Technology in Southeast Asia (AATSEA) has been organized the International Conference on the integration of various topics in biological science, technology in agriculture and related fields that is needed for sustainable development of human being. As being a resource of knowledge, AATSEA realizes its responsibility to serve the community by providing education, research and development in biological science and technology, particularly in the multi-disciplinary aspects. Accordingly, this conference will be held in order to initiate an international network among academic members, researchers, scientists and interesting peoples in science and technology. It will be aimed to a venue for knowledge exchange and discussion among those seeking for new vision and insight in all topics related. For the technical point of view, the conference will explore various topics as following sessions:

Agri-business and Agricultural Development, Agricultural Mechanics and Engineering, Biological Diversity and Microbiology, Animal Science, Environmental Science, Fisheries Science, Food Science and Technology, Plant science (Horticulture, Agronomy, Postharvest Technology), Plant Pest Management (Plant Pathology, Entomology and Weed Science), Soil and Environment, Water Reservation.
